1 CONT HISTORY: from SMS, p. 5. Warner Ford Sr. was a Revolutionary War Soldier
1 CONC r.
1 CONT His service record starts with his enlistment in two expeditions into Illinois;
1 CONC nois;
1 CONT first on 18 July 1780 in the company of John Swan, George Rogers Clark,
1 CONT Company Colonel, for 35 days of service; second, 22nd Oct. 1782 in the 1 CONT company of John Snoddy, George Rogers Clark, Brigadier General, for 1 CONT 354 days, this reference came from the Virginia State Archives in the
1 CONT Virginia State Library, Vol. 8 (77)
1 CONT
1 CONT Following these military services, Warner acquired a grant of 400 acres of 1 CONT land at Cedar and Buck Creeks in Lincoln County, Kentucky. This is
1 CONT almost five miles southwest of Crab Orchard, which was a military center
1 CONT of the region. This was reported in Old Kentucky Land Grants by Williard
1 CONT Rouse, Filson, Vol. 34 of the Filson Society of Publications. It must have
1 CONC ve
1 CONT been around 1771 that Warner married Cytha or Sytha or Sity Million.
1 CONT In the list of Virginia Tax Payers, 1782-1787, Warner is given 1 poll in
1 CONT Lincoln County, Kentucky. (77)
1 CONT
1 CONT On 21 Feb 1787, he bought 100 acres on Cooper's Run, Bourbon Co., KY,
1 CONT very close to the county seat, first called Hopewell and afterward Paris.
1 CONT Certain evidence of his life in Bourbon Co. are reported in the Kentucky
1 CONT State Historical Register as follows: Member of Cooper's Run Baptist
1 CONT Church, 1788;
1 CONT Venireman at the trial of S_____L_____ for larceny, Sep. term. 1794,
1 CONT as well Robert Terrell, father in-law to two of his sons; venireman for

1 CONT
1 CONT In the first census of Bourbon County dated 1790 Warner is found. (77)
1 CONT
1 CONT Warner sold his property in Bourbon County, KY 24 Oct 1810, but he had
1 CONT previously gone to Henry County, KY since the deed to his property
1 CONT there stated, "the property on which said Warner Ford now lives." The 1 CONT property was on the south side of the Kentucky River at Cane Run which 1 CONT is very close to the present town of Port Royal. Warner must have died
1 CONT in 1835, since that was the year his children divided his property among 1 CONT them. He and his wife Sytha are buried in the churchyard of the Baptist
1 CONT Church at Port Royal, but the stones are so worn they cannot be read.

1 CONT It appears by scanning different online images of actual census and oth

1 CONT that when our ancestors first arrived they were educated from there writin

1 CONT as time went on and the original settler's migrated to other areas of t
